5. In-School Observations

Arrangements should be in place for the NQT to be formally observed at least once every half term. Please state who will undertake these observations and approximately when each one will take place:

It is good practice for NQTs to observe other experienced teachers at work. Please state briefly what arrangements have been made for your NQT to observe other teachers:

6. Review of Progress

NQTs should have regular meetings with a mentor (weekly or fortnightly). In addition, a more formal progress review should take place half-terminally and at the end of each period of induction (usually the end of each term).

Are these mentoring and review arrangements in place?

Yes / No

If No, please explain why:

7. Assessment Forms

For Full time NQTs submissions one school term usually represents one period of assessment. Part time NQTs submissions should be made after each block of 63 working days has been completed. The Assessment Forms should be sent within 15 days of the end of each assessment period.
